

SENIOR TIMES

WITH WARRIOR PRIDE

PICHS 1995-96

Nick Dwan

Brian Ellis

Greg Gainer

Whitney Good

Brian Hamons

Tommy Dickenson

Donnie Ervine

Roy Galford

Holly Gordon

Mike Hefner

Koshawn Donaldson

Ryan Fedak

Matt Gibson

James Gravely

Jason Hicks

Eva Dunbrack

Chad Foe

Mike Gibson

Emily Grimes

Carrie Hickson

Mike Dunbrack

Mandy Friel

Cindy Gilmore

Rebecca Grimes

Samuel Jackson

Nick Dean

Brian Ellis

Greg Gainer

Whitney Good

Brian Hamons

Tommy Dickenson

Donnie Ervine

Roy Galford

Holly Gordon

Mike Hefer

Roshawn Donaldson

Ryan Fedak

Matt Gibson

James Gravely

Jason Hicks

Eva Dunbrack

Chad Foe

Mike Gibson

Emily Grimes

Carrie Hickson

Mike Dunbrack

Mandy Friel

Cindy Gilmore

Rebecca Grimes

Samuel Jackson

Here's Looking At You Now!

Mark Beverage

Josh Bond

Jason Carr

Nikki Alikakos

David Armstrong

Mike Beverage

Dege Burdette

Brandy Cassell

Corey Alkire

Liddy Barb

David Blankenship

Sharon Burgess

Elissa Corbett

Chris Alonso

Travis Barb

Travis Blankenship

Melissa Cain

Aaron Cumashot

Anita Arbogast

Jessica Beverage

Johnnie Boggs

Jimmy Campbell

Morgan Dale

Joyce Johnson

Tonja Madison

David McCray

Pam Miller

Kathy Mutter

Charles Kinnison

Katie Malcom

James McNeel

Nicole Mitchell

Gina Palmer

Scott Lambert

Michael Matheny

Jamie McNeill

Scott Morgan

Lonnie Perdue

Jennifer Landis

Amanda McCarty

Sherry Mick

Matt Moore

John Perry

Micah Lehman

Scharlie McComb

Mindy Miles

Melinda Moore

Travis Price

Joy Pritt

Tim Rexrode

Benny Ryder

Ronda Sheets

Allison Sparks

Phillip Propst

Doug Ridley

Sherry Ryder

Kenney Shinaberry

Wayne Strayer

Elaina Pyles

Jason Rolleston

Christy Sharp

Seth Shinaberry

Mike Sumner

Joey Pyles

Susan Roy

Lora Sharp

James Simmons

Jeremy Ulderich

Tara Rexrode

Chris Rush

Robin Shearer

Amanda Snyder

Jason Underwood

Jennifer Underwood

Jamie Warner

Richard Wilfong

Aleisha Vandevander

Vicki Waugh

Kenny Williams

Danny Vandevander

Sarah
'96

Sarah Weadon

Nathan Workman

John Via

Cheryl Weatherholt

Pam Young

Angela Warner

Kristi Wilfong

Congratulations
GRADUATES

I WILL TO THE FOLLOWING

I, Corey Alkire, leave Zig, a better hair piece; Matt, another run to Green Bank; Donnie, memories of it being clean, cool, and one more night with K.H.; Boo, my old truck; Holly, a sipper; M., one more dip in the pool; Katie, a life full of HYPER thoughts; Mike S., a woman he can't handle; Doug, a woman he can handle; Whitney, a smaller whip; Bond, more pathetic years; Amanda E., another concert; Amanda S., more parties; Spooze, a lot more trouble; Jess, strawberries and whipcream; and to everybody else . . . I'm outta here!

I, Chris Alonso, am immortal.

I, Anita Arboqast, leave Dad and Mom, all the love I could possibly give and happiness forever. I love you! Amy, good luck in the future with your son Caleb and all my love; Caleb, all the happiness in the world and my love; Bub, my everlasting love in the world. I love you always; Holly, all my friendship in the world. Never forget all the fun times we had and the best of luck with Allen, and my love; J. Taylor, thanks for everything and all my friendship; to all my other friends, good luck in life.

I, David Armstrong, leave Mr. Burns, another National title; Mrs. Burns, plenty of patience to deal with Mr. Burns; Morgan, a trip to Texas to find out if God really did bless it; Lonnie, a new nickname, I just need to figure out what an Australian corn dog is; Sam, all the memories of this year and all the past ones. We've had some fun; Jimmy, '67 Chevelle to paint yellow and make run; Charles, a record opportunity, now you have to learn to sing; Tonja, a puppy.

I, Liddy Barb, leave

Vicki W., my notebooks and a pair of stilts; Mr. Alderman, some cleaning equipment; Mrs. Stewart, a free consultation when I set up my business; Amanda, a store-bought diploma and engagement ring; Lindsay, the ability to get out of bed before 2 p.m.; David, an "upadair a pillow"; Justin, a helmet and a club to protect him from David; Mom & Dad, no more kids like me and lots of love; Ma Beverage, less grief; William, my heart.

I, Jessica Beverage, leave Jason, all my love and his own sporting goods store; Schar, a jive life with Travis; Bran, Japanese men from Florida; ER, a pair of boxing gloves; Ginger, Kristen, & Cheryl, wild, crazy parties with Chris, time, and Brad; Lora, bathroom surprises, Bone's Diner, and luck with Jason; Flag Corps, pigs/pegs; Cain, Kimmy, & Amanda, band camp (hypothetically speaking); Danny, another trip to the beach; Dave, good sense of humor; Seth, Merle, Chuck, & Morgan, a recording studio and tickets to see Garth Brooks; Paul, another worm; Schar, Bran, & ER, memories and friendship; Jeremy, a hard time; Mom & Dad, three-day weekends and Thanks.

I, David Blankenship, leave Coach Ziegler, a lifetime supply of soccer balls and a banana for every day of the year; Jeremy U., the complete collection of "The Highlander"; James, many pins and patches; Sam, a set of tools and a handbook to take things apart with; Jessica, good luck with the guy of her dreams; freshmen soccer players, a roll of duct tape to use when they are seniors; to the RENEGADES, plenty of gas and quarters; teachers and students, thanks for putting up with me and goodbye!

I, Johnnie Boggs, leave Jimmy H., Luke, Phillip, and Paul, more destruction; Chris C., a trip out of Stillwell; Bosley, a trip to Little River; Bosshog, a draghook; Propst, a new motor; Buzz, a pumpkin; M. Beverage, a Nissan; Greg G., a scope, Forestry class-singing lessons; Mr. Burns, a bitt more; Mandy S., a bookbag carrier; Lora C., aspirin; Kristy W., pencil; Sharlie, Brandy, and Jess, another class like Stew's; Ginger, common sense; Elissa C., happiness; Kristen, a ride home; Kristy Kane, J. Michael's tailgate; J. Simmons, a razor; Smoking Joe, another lie.

I, Josh Bond, leave Boo, hair; Corey, palbeticness; Bob, Prom '94 and a party at Whittaker; J.R., the doors, a party at Hillsboro, and Jerico Road; Jay, Ernest and Silverchair, Mary and A.C.; Pic, MEMS; Billy, smoochoo lines, good times, and the basics bro.; Kenny, a ride to Elkins and another party at Blackhurst's; Donnie, another trip to Nationals, but, don't worry, IT'S CLEAN!; Jeremy, Cheat Mtn!; Jen, a ring at graduation; Chris White, the "A" Frame and heart-shaped box; Jessica, my heart, my mind, and Van Damm's body.

I, Dege Burdette, leave Jimmy C., all my love, more good times together; Cindy G., a diploma and Kevin the Schwan's man; Melinda M., Jimmy Simmons and his muscular body; Aleisha V. and Amanda M., more good times at Durbin's pay phone and on Back Mountain; Scott M. and Christy S., more good times to Lewisburg; Chris C., "A LOT" of you-know what; Mike A., Deanna; Jason G., a life; Brandy, my attitude; Mom, a rich man; Dad, another daughter like me; my grandparents, my love and thanks for your care and support.

I, Sharon Burgess, leave my parents, a long life of happiness and a special thanks for everything; Jennifer, another walk on the mountain; Mandy, long talks with Hannah in Bethany; Gina, more JC Penney credit cards, good luck!; Seth, more lunches in the hall;

Allison, more clothes to loan to Cindy; Sheila, more silly pictures; last but not least, Jason (Hardrock), all my love and devotion to our life together.

I, Missy Cain, leave Eva, an outhouse; Elaina and Jennifer, a bathroom stall; Cheryl, a ride to school; Mindy, friendship forever; Aaron C., a heater; to the rest, friendship; my brother, my bedroom; Dad, my diploma; Mom, my love; John, my love & life always; Grandma Opal, whom I miss very much, my blessings and love.

I, Jim Campbell, leave Dege, my love forever; Scott, more fun times in Roanoke; Matt, a trash can, not a car door; Chris, a reputation like mine; Mike Hefner, more childhood memories; Kenney, fun times in Therman's camper, "butter-scotch bow!"; Dad, another great time at the beach together; Mom, another fight-ha ha; Mrs. Keller, 5 more students like me; Mrs. Beverage, thanks for all the help; Gary S., another trip to N.C.; Jason G., to be as mean as me-ha ha; Lonnie and Jason, thanks for everything you've done, love you!; Class of '96, party and have fun!

I, Brandy Cassell, leave Scharlie, a bib, tow rope, a gate to keep the cows in; Jess, a life full of amoxicillin, a job, and happiness with Jason; Elissa, a leash for her dog; Dave, a jeans ad in GQ and a pair of shorts that actually fit; Josh, a personality; Jeremy, Slow down!; Alison, a tall goon; Johnnie, a life raft and three-course meal with bacon, bug juice, and pretzels; Zig, the wrath of the hydra; Katie, a pair of platform shoes; Ginger and Kristen, the milk business; Mom, Love and thanks!!

I, Elissa Corbett, leave Mr. Wade, 5 days of luxury; Don, Alice-n-Wonderland, driver's license, shaving cream; William, jail; Amanda, road all to herself; Adam, Ean; Ronda, Fatman; Tara, side herkey; Johnnie, dry truck; Booger, history class; Buzz, kiss; Tom, Dr. Pepper bottle; Phil, dancing lessons; Cowpattie, I doubt it; Schar, Berea; Brand, the man of your choice; Jess, luck with Jason; Molly, wasted trips; Jay, ride to town; Matt, friendship; Phillip P., back seat; cheerleaders, my talents; Ryan, bird calls; Chris, slick roads, ditches, tow truck, mirror, Taco Bell, all my love forever, I love you!

I, Morgan Dale, leave David A., a railroad tie to kick; Stuby, a brain; Renegades, gas and quarters; Merle, a NFR wool jacket; Seth, a decent woman; Lonnie and Sam, snowballs; Jeremy U., oil paint, brushes, and a ghostbuster; Cindy and Katrina, spaghetti and lemonade; Cindy, a hug; Baboon Woman, my dd nag, your own indoor arena, and my Snowy River tape; to all forgotten, tough luck.

I, Tommy Dickenson, leave Adam, an alternator and privacy on Buffalo; Phillip, a Toyota; Donnie, some insurance; Evan, a chicken roast; James, some brakes; Mike M., a telephone pole; Johnnie B., another night at the tunnels; Scott, another? Tide hat; Danny, a tailgate; Chad, his own vehicle; Amanda, the right-away on a road; Elissa, another night on Buffalo and some sense; Tara, 150 dollars; Ronda, a boyfriend; Missy, a dozen roses; Angela, another step; Stacey, an automatic vehicle; Cindy, one chance; William, another Elcamino; Wade and Vance, all my days in detention.

I, Roshawn Donaldson-Hampton, leave my mother, Wanda, all the love and affection she deserves!; Billie, a phat split; Spencer, a year supply of blue hair dye and a pack of Camels; Jud, a belt and some KGB's; Aaron, a new hat!; Pat C, a blow-up doll!; Jason B., a million kisses for every smile; Ariana, a car to live in; J.R., a new attitude and clothes I borrowed; Mr. Wade, a lifetime supply of Rogain; Keith, four shots and new hands!; Mandy S., best wishes in whatever you do; everyone else I missed, good luck in the future.

I, Eva Dunbrack, leave Andrew, all my love, devotion, and a happy life together; Melissa, a night in Durbin and a clean

Kanney, a blue Bronco; Tommy, a new clutch; Brad, enough money to finish his truck; Jimmy, a wild party; Jamie, a clean truck; Brandy, all my love and happiness we'll share throughout our lives, and me; Jennifer, happiness with Brad; my family, all the times we've shared, love and thanks, my bright smile, and years full of happiness and laughter.

I, Amanda McCarty, leave Aleisha, more fun times at the pay phone in Durbin; Angela, more good times at the races and a Dr. Pepper; Sherry, the ability to draw; Mindy, a pig farm; Larry, guardrails; Tommy, a new truck; Chad T., another walk to Buffalo; Dege, Back Mountain and a white truck; Elissa, a new man, another trip to Tennessee, and friendship forever; Dad and Mom, my love and the patience to put up with me; Mrs. Stewart, another student like Evan; William, more fun times; Adam, all my love forever, more good times, and your wish come true; Gina, whiteout.

I, Scharlie McComb, leave Brandy, call waiting, angels in coveralls, and ebolia; Jessica, dead crickets, happiness and jive times; Elissa, wake-up calls, silver shoes; Calhouner, question (early 90's), and bathroom surprises; Ging, Cheryl, and Kristin, NEW one-size-fits-most-rag, right to free flow; Jamie, stolen notebooks; Nathan, motivation, 60 days of rehab; Dave, 18 seconds of fame; Katie, a parachute; Johnnie, skates, a life preserver; Bosshog, ladder to climb onto the stage; Micah, homeroom; Jason, lights left on; Krissy, cure for lazy feet; Alisha, the crew; Jess, Bran, Johnnie, and Micah, Driver's Ed; Stewman's Pic-food off the floor; Martha, two Africans; Seth, by himself.

I, David McCray, leave Susan, my heart; Chuck, my geometry homework; Mike, a lot of my palm tree leaves; Bob, Chad, & Alex, gas money for our trip to Vegas; Chris, gum; Joyce & Tonja, anything they want to get over me, which means the big red Dodge and a book of my problem-solving-answers.

I, James McNeel, leave behind just one thing, my many thanks to all the people (teachers and students) I have grown to know over the last four years—you have meant so much to me, and my sanity. PEACE AND LOVE TO YOU ALL-AND THANK-YOU.

I, Jamie McNeill, leave my homeroom, the film for the movie; Robin, another egg and judging trip; Keatley and Derek, a real truck; Ms. Poole, another steer jock; Christy, "I liked it"; Chuck, another day skipping at the greenhouse.

I, Sherry Mick, leave Amanda, a great relationship with Adam and a dust rag; Aleisha, a long and happy life with Mr. L.; Tim, one last party in Durbin and a Steve Earl tape; Mindy, a happy birthday; Angela, one last cruise in Elkins and an order of dinner rolls; Ronda, luck with men; Tara, a Cowboys jacket with that special guy in it; Scott L., an apron; Lisa, Stacy, and Stephanie, the statue; Donnie E., a set of shoe strings to play with; Eric, a back seat; Jennifer L, Glenville; Mike, thanks for having patience and nerves; Mom and Dad, all my love and thanks for your support; Class of 1996, the best of luck in the future.

I, Mindy Miles, am deceased, and I leave Christy, a white Chevette, Walmart, and new tires; Missy, all our times flat-footin' it; Cheryl, a healthy baby; Alicia, motherhood; Robin, back-support bras; Allison, hair dye, a fingernails, and a spelling book; Mandy, a growth spurt; Joy, dance lessons and long pants; Pam, no stretch marks; Holly, a racquetball; Eva, a splash in the face; Mr. Hall, a life; Sis, love and inspiration; Katie, the world in your hands; Mom and Gary, my bills, my kids, and my love; Sierra, a guardian angel; Jerry, my life, my soul, and my undying love forever.

I, Pam Miller, leave Jimmy, a Barney blanket; Eva, a big rock and 4 new tires; Missy, John and makeup; Elaina, Keith and hair dye; Kathy, Ice Man; Melinda, a box of aspirin; Cheryl, Josh; Mom and Bruce, a happy life and my love; my grandparents, thanks for everything, I love you lots; Kenny, my heart and love and more nights on bear tracks; Darin, the ability to make your own choices and a happy life; Mrs. B., an organizer; Mr. Vance, a sweater.

I, Nicole Mitchell, leave Emily, a brain and diploma; Tonja, a bag of dum-dums; Bradley, a real girlfriend; Christina, luck in Biology; Abbie, a typing degree; Katie, a DQ blizzard; Samuel, a great job as a game warden; Elissa, a better understanding of the world; Kathy, a muzzle; for all my other friends I didn't mention, success in whatever you choose to do; David, a great, lasting life together with our baby; all my family, thanks for all the support, I love you all very much!

I, Matt Moore, leave Jason Hicks, more great times; Dano, lots of money (you'll need it); Jennifer Miller, my love forever; Andy B., a Days Run campground in the middle of winter; Aleisha, Katie, and Krissy, playing cards, pool table, and clothes; Josh, Ryan, and Jamie, good luck in the U.S. Corps; Corey A., all the CD's and tapes you would ever want; Chanda H., lots of clothes and shoes; Wayne S., a bottle of Canadian Mist and a forest to run through; Scottie M., a pair of shoes besides sandals; to all my teachers, more students like me; to my parents, a thank you for raising me; to my little brothers, a great life, enjoy it!

I, Melinda Moore, leave C.G., a brush, Hardees, and Durbin; C.W., shopping in Lewisburg, new lawnmower, and luck with the baby & Josh; C.S., Zima and another fall backwards; M.C., RiteAide; D.B., lifetime job at DQ; P.P., E.B., & A.T., a punching bag; J.G., whenever; S.D., homecoming; R.S. & T.R., Charleston trips; E.D., another summer like '94, ghost and Zima; C.G., just one more night; J.M., Reddog & Black Velvet; S.M., redeye; J.S., a blow-up doll; J.D., Little G. & Visine; K.H., Charlie Brown; Mom, Dad, Pam, & all my family, my love and thanks for everything; H.B., me and my love forever; L.S. & S.M., R. Rose; R.R. & Mr. T., another me; E.P., bonfire and a good dog.

I, Scott Morgan, leave Jimmy Campbell, many nights out; Chris Campbell, another trip to Roanoke; Jason Galford, my good grades; Dege Burdette, friendship; Mark Beverage, a Ford truck; Cindy Gilmore, the perfect date; Mike Arbogast, another ballgame; Matt Gibson, a pool stick; Matt Alderman, a bowl of cornflakes; John Via, another good bus ride; David Ames, a trip to the beach; Buckwheat, another good trip; Brook McLaughlin, someone else to pick on; Fran Taylor, another perfect student; Mr. Burns, a magical biltmore stick.

I, Kathy Nutter, leave Pam, a legal hall pass to roam the school and my friendship; Cindy, common sense while drinking; Eva, an extra car hood; Nicole, a bib; Karen, some blow pops; Travis K., a muffler and a muffler burn; Mrs. B., tons of Roloids and another me; J-Michael, my love and concern; to the most important people in my life, Mom and Dad, thanks for being there, I love you two!

I, Gina Palmer, leave Jennifer U., rent money and food stamps; Sharon B., good luck with Hardrock; Jason U., a ride to Subway; Rebecca G., a great life and love with Brian; Mrs. Stewart, a gossip column and a better student, like me; Mrs. Reenen, two better aides and popcorn; Mrs. Rhea, FBIA and a better typist; Mandy & Kenney, good luck in life; Kristi & Mike, camping with John and me; Jason Fox, Snowshoe and hunting; to teachers at PCHS, thanks for all of your help; Mr. Rexrode, ACT tests and long talks; Mom & Dad, love and thanks for all your help. I love you all; John D., a happy life together and thanks for your support as well as your parents.

I, Travis Price, leave Travis Keatley, a real truck; Joe Hicks, a matching paint job for his truck; Mark Beverage, quarters for the car wash; Ryan Fedak, a rope for his soap; Mike Beverage, answers to his Algebra II; Mrs. Keller, a Big Johnson shirt; Mr. Sheets, a pair of Chippewas; Zig, hair tonic and goat cheese; Mr. Thompson, my pencils; Adam Taylor, a pair of Taz boxers.

I, Joy Pritt, leave Deanna, a rumorless life; Christy, a million more P.M.'s; Mindy, a B.M.; Eva, an outhouse; Missy, a class ring of dreams; Jennifer, a real man; Mr. Hall, a tuned piano and lessons; my family, I love you all, you have my undying gratitude for all you've done for me; Scotty, my deepest thoughts and all my love forever.

I, Philip Propst, leave Evan Bosley, another night at Bryan Gragg's house; Mark Buzzard, another Cowgirl; Mike Arbogast, a good car for the places to go; Aaron Childers, better luck next year in football; Davey Rexrode, good luck in the future; Chad Taylor, another night on Buffalo; Adam Taylor, privacy when needed; Tommy Dickenson, a good truck; Mr. Burns, another class like ours; Tara Rexrode, great luck in the future; Johnnie Boggs, an amphibious truck; Coach Barb, all the great luck with Warrior Football.

I, Elaina Pyles, leave Cheryl, friendship and five more babies; Missy and Eva, more times in the bathroom; Jennifer, one more tree; Phillip, a football helmet; Jason, a new truck; Cindy, another cooking class; Melinda, a new bathing suit; Tara, brains; Rebecca, a new computer; Nikki, a real man; Pam Miller, Kenny's money; Pam Young, luck in life; Keith Hannah, my heart and all my love.

I, Joey Pyles, leave Benny, tickets to go see a Dallas Cowboy game; my little sister, my walkman and all my tapes; Mom and Dad, all the love in my heart; Mrs. Rexrode, my Michael Jordan basketball; Selena, my Rod Woodson shirt and my Scottie Pippen basketball; Katie, my basketball cards; Mr. Hall, a picture to remember me by.

I, Tara Rexrode, leave Ronda, my best friend, another trip to Virginia Beach & Charleston, the State Fair, New Year's Eve, all the football games and all those Fridays; Morgan, another broomstick; Elissa, another ride to Shepherdstown & another trip to France and Spain; Lisa & Pam, more times after school; Tommy, more rocks in your truck seat; Deon, infinity plus infinity; to all the cheerleaders, more good times; Jennifer, a conscience; Dano, the girl of his dreams; Matt, life as a Marine.

I, Timothy Rexrode, leave Stephanie Nelson, my jeans and CD player; Lisa Cassell, a road map; Sherry Mick, a Steve Miller Band tape; Angela Warner, a pizza and nurse's suit; Bryan Pugh, a pop tart; Aaron Childers, another party at your house; David Rexrode, a new truck; Stacey Dickenson, the Snowshoe Man; to all my friends I didn't mention, don't think I don't care because I do; Mom, thanks for being there and I leave all my love.

I, Susan Roy, leave Tonya, more nights at Foodland and the phrase "look at me when I'm talking to you"; Crystal, lots of Burgundy hair dye and body piercing; Joyce, more days in Anatomy and best of luck with Jason; Dave, my love, friendship and someone who loves you; Mr. Hall, piano lessons and another band aide like me; my parents, my thanks for everything and my love; Jessica V., fond memories of Brian and Amanda; Jared, my love and friendship; Richard, more band trips; Lora, more talks about men and trips to Glenville; Rob, my heart and my love always.

I, Benny Ryder, leave Joey, a basketball game with Michael Jordan; Brad, a '68 Camaro; Jeremy, five tickets to all Charlotte games; Mike, a real truck, "Chevy"; Sam T., bigger pockets to put his tools in; Jennifer, a race car and a rubber tree; Brandy, convertible Rabbit; Truman, brains to help him through school; Carol, a rich and a pool of -ad; Calvin, '96

Peterbilt with chrome; Trish, a Mauch I and a straight stretch; June T., a way to get rid of her problem kids; Crystal, a four-bedroom house, indoor pool, and all my love; Mom and Dad, all the laughs we've shared and times we've cried, love and thanks, and all those special things. Thanks Again.

I, Sherry Ryder, leave Chad, my love and friendship, happiness, and the night woman; Bob, my love and friendship and a new car; Alex, my love and friendship, happiness, and sanity; Scottie, a memory; Herry, a good woman; Roro, happiness with men; Spencer, less energy and a manicure; Bucky and Andrea, each other; Mike, a louder voice; Mom and Dad, my love and no more teenage daughters; everyone, peace, love, happiness, and anchovies.

I, Jason Rolleston, leave Coach Sheets, an electric fence to surround the basketball court; Mrs. Fiegel, hundreds of NA papers; future soccer teams, lots of luck; basketball, the record for slams in a year; Mr. Wade, a straw and a membership in the Hair Club for Men; Mrs. Howell, a college application; Mr. Rexrode, a beeper; Mrs. Vance, a computer that works; Ms. Blankenship, Vallium; Mrs. McGee, a finished homework assignment and a finished application; Mr. Vance, Fisher Price "My First Walkie Talkie."

I, Chris Rush, leave Lonnie, a new car and the ability to drive it; Jamie, a windshield; Samuel, more trips to Kansas City; David, a hunting trip to Colorado; Jimmy, a real truck; Robin, lots of money and Mark; Morgan, more good times; D.J., more trips to Morgantown; Mom, thanks for all your love and encouragement, I'll love you always; to the rest of my family, thanks for all the memories and good times.

I, Christy Sharp, leave Wally K., Matt G., & P.J.B., New Year's and special friendship; Lori & Brook, parking lots to get kicked out of; Dege, Jimmy, Scott, & Chris, wild night & red eye; William, Mike G., & Bobby T., sweet little ol' me; Mindy, K-Mart, fortune, & joy; Melinda, friends forever & love; Jamie Mc., the phrase "I liked it"; Missy, pickles & chocolate syrup; Parker, a map; Willie, memories and a life; Christina, ride on ice; Joy, many moons; Uncle Bones, lifetime of talks; family, Mom, Dad, & friends, thanks bunches. Love you all!

I, Lora Sharp, leave Tessa, all the luck and love in the world; Marlena J., friendship and lots of luck for your senior year; to the foursome, Luke, Paul, Phillip, and Jimmy, all my headaches and embarrassing moments that you've put me through, especially you, Luke!; to all the teachers I've had at PCHS, patience and kindness, you will need them next year. Also I leave you much happiness and exceeding joy in life. Thank you all!

I, Robin Shearer, leave Robbie, fun times, more trips to Elkins, and a sideways neck nod; Matt, a santa clause; Jamie, another poultry trip; Mr. Shank, another me; Jennifer, another baby and more wild nights; Crystal, a fake I.D.; my family, I love you guys and thanks for everything; Dad, a new wife and more kids, I love you; Mom, you are the most important person in my life and I will love you forever, and grandkids; Mark, our memories, good and bad. I hope we have a good life together and I will love you forever.

I, Ronda Sheets, leave Morgan, matching shoes; Sondra, another me; Matt, parties; Corey, Jess; Bob, a real woman; Lisa, other girls; boyfriends; Elissa, a trampoline and more good times; Melinda, men; Chris, Elissa; Pam, a healthy baby; Missy, more trouble to get into; Mike, Brandy; Travis, a truck bed; P.J., men; Sherry, a Charleston trip; Tara, the trip to Charleston, State Fair, football games, New Year's Eve, and those Fridays; Bob, a real team; Mom and Dad, all my love.

I, Kenney Shinaberry, leave Mike M., a 1975 Bronco, the ability to drive, and a happy life with Brandy;

Cheryl, a healthy baby and a good life; Allison, all the pickups in the world and a happy life with Mike; Ms. Poole, the ability to teach Ag. and two more Mike Matheny's and Kenney Shinaberry's for as long as you teach; Jimmy, my old black truck; Mom and Dad, thanks for everything; Mandy, all my love forever, a very happy life, and my thanks for everything you've done, I love you!

I, Seth Shinaberry, leave Chuck, a big cookie; Mandy, me or another guy to treat you right; Morgan, another ride of "The Renegades"; Merle, duck tape and blue paint; Jessica, another party under the stars; Barb, another rich girl; Dough, Golly!; Katrina, anything you want; Jeremy, continued talent; Sharon, best of luck in the future; Doug, more poems; Mrs. Vance, a new aide; Dave B., another ride; to anyone I missed, sorry! Best of luck.

I, Jimmy Simmons, leave Burns, another student like me; Poole, another heater to sit on; Melinda, all my love and my muscular body; Kathy, another trip to Lewisburg; Cheryl, my best friend Josh; Lonnie, a good hair day; Burns, my ability to grow a beard; David, another camping trip like Slaty Fork; Mr. Wade, some good guardrails; Morgan D., another night at Tea Creek; Chuck, a hard hat; Scott, another night at Warens; Richard U., all my good times; Mark B., Rachel; Travis P., Chevrolet, a real truck; Johnnie, a life vest; David, new license plate; Pam, another hug.

I, Mandy Snyder, leave Cowpattie, the summers in Huntington, Hoot-Owls, "Brown-eyed girls," schemes, and friendship forever; Katrina R., State Track meets, Snowshoe, arrogant ski instructors, and friendship; Seth S., trips to the fair and a woman that's good enough for him; Pic & Doug, kidnapped snowmen; Aaron V., a chocolate cake; Cheryl S., a game of "3-man"; Mr. Hall, a megaphone to throw; Mrs. Burns, someone to call her "Burnie"; Jessie E., Liz C., & Beth, memories of Montreal;

Johnnie B., floaties; David Y., gum and massages; Jessica B., dead crickets; the basketball team, balls that aren't flat; Mom & Dad, love and thanks.

I, Allison Sparks, leave Mandy, a can of noodle soup with a straw and a happy life with Kenney; Cindy, a real man; Mandy, good credit; Eva, a shoe size; Jen, best wishes of happiness; Kristi, a lifetime of happiness with Mike; Rebecca, best wishes; Mike, my life, my love, and everything else I have to offer, I love you; my family, a huge THANKS!; to everyone at PCHS, it's been a memorable four years. Thanks!

I, Mike Sumner, leave Pic, a shovel to clean out his locker; Corkey, a leash that's not so tight; Doug R., a girl that finally says "Yes"; Jamie W., some herbs to flavor his brownies; Zig, the goat cheese he has always "Juan"ted; Merle, a much bigger belt buckle; Seth, a Jeep that's not wrapped around an oak tree; Whitney, my heart.

I, Wayne Strayer, Jr., leave Susan, more seats to be saved; Jason, money that I don't have; Matt & Dano, better times with Jennifer; and last but not least, all my love to my girl, Kim. I Love You!

I, Jeremy Ulderich, leave Jason, the house; Brandy, advice, "slow down"; Roy, deep blue something rembrandt; Dane, the sword; Jessica, touchdown; James, an apartment on Ashbury; Dave, confidence; Margaret, relief from hiccups; Nikki & Morgan, compasses; Seth, a microphone; Charlie, a painting; Hanna, cottage in Ireland; Amanda, Spiderman's address; Cindy, another chimp; Lonnie, power steering; Bob, many stress-free days; Josh, new car, bigger board, and better options; E., small things, pennies, and moonlit paths; to all my friends, those named, those not, peace, happiness, comfort, and all my love. Thank you all for your friendship.

I, Jason Underwood, leave Fig, three new rubber chickens and five cans of Lysol; Mrs. Keller, another 18-year-old student to pick on; Mrs.

Beverage, another boisterous homeroom; Derek Wheeler, a quarter for enjoyment; Richard & John, no more Homecoming!!; Jen M. Bosley, a better life, all the women he needs, and a full notebook of paper; to all underclassmen, the best of luck in life and school.

I, Jennifer Underwood, leave Gina, a great life with John; Derek, all my fantasies; my group, more laughs, less silence; Sharon,
a happy marriage;
Josh, a woman like me;
Mrs. VanReenen, tea, cocoa, and popcorn;
Little Britches, a CB; Jason, a life of love;
Allison, a happy life;
Fox, two more chicks to talk to; Bob, master discussions; my mother & father, my thanks and love; to my special person, Thanks...I miss you!

I, Aleisha
Vandevender, leave Angela (Angus), a pet opossum and Dr. Pepper truck; Amanda, lots of patience to put up with Adam; Sherry, her dream man; Travis & Tommy, best of luck to get out of PCHS; Cheryl, lots of luck
with the new baby; Missy, best of luck with John; Dege & Jimmy, luck and money to make it to Tennessee; Mom & Dad, all my love and thanks for helping me make it through school; Mr.
"L," all my love and support and all you want out of life;
Evan, rough time; Lisa & Stacey, more good times in Durbin.

I, Angela Warner, leave Aleisha, more fun times with "Big Jake"; Amanda, the best of times and patience with Adam; Sherry, a life other than the apartment; Vicki, more Fridays &
Saturdays with Curtis; Tara & Ronda, another exciting & loud night at Charleston; Kenny W., the wedding of his dreams; Danny V., a new set of words; Larry, more exciting weekends in the "big town"; Tim R., pizza dough and a doctor's hat; Tommy D., another space on my list; Mom, all my love and thanks; the class of
'96, the best future ever.

I, Jamie Warner, leave Zig, a goat; Mickle, a brain; Buzz, a muffler; Johnnie, a boat; Nathan, another sleepless night on your porch sitting around the table; Michael S., some Visine; Piccolo, another turkey out of its cage; Kristen, a kiss; Ginger, some caffeine pills; Cheryl, a night on the town; Corey, a tracking collar for Jessie; Lora, the romance we never had;

Josh, a Burrito; Mandy, another party at my house and forgotten friendship.

I, Victoria Waugh, leave the Senior Class, the best of luck in the future; Liddy, happiness with William; Marlene, a night on the town in her lingerie; Angela, Dallas Cowboy tickets; Aleisha, a fun night in Durbin with a rich man; Bugs, a new Chevrolet truck so he won't keep breaking down; Josh, my art supplies so he can continue in my footsteps; Mom & Dad, lots of thanks for all you've done for me; my love, Curtis, the best life we can have together.

I, Sarah Weadon, leave Derek, my Grateful Dead shirt and a Gatorade bottle;
Schteuwby, Vitamin C, milk, and a phone chord; Beth, more laughs than ever; Josh, the summer of
'95; Jeremy, a room of planes; Kenny, a clear driveway; Bob, more cookies; Gerald, that computer disk; Joshua,
my sprinting shoes;
Keith, earplugs;
Billy, busted lip;
Spud, my room and TJ &
David; ESSH Students, Newsweek!; Kenny, Beth, & Billy,
raincheck for a snow picnic; all who have been there with me, Ramshorn to all; Love, Peace, and Mickey Mouse.

I, Cheryl Weatherholt, leave Josh & Dylan, my love, wonderful times and a promising future; Melinda, a Jimmy Simmons' care package, a night on Elk, a Zima, and friendship forever; Elaina, friendship, Keith, and a trip with Captain S.H.; Corey,
another camping trip, friendship always, and best of luck with Devin & Chris; Mom & Dad, all my love, many thanks, and everything I could ever give;
Robin & Richie, a night at Cramer's Mill and thanks; Kesha, the ability to survive at P.C.H.S.; Brook, LOTS of courage, someone else to TRY and scare, and her OWN guy; Jason

M, another friend like me, a red dog, and his own Ag.II class; Class of '96, great memories and friendship forever.

I, Kristi Wilfong, leave Mike, all my love & the rest of my life; Rebecca, friendship forever and all the Mountain Dew in the world; Mandy, another trip to P.A.; Allison, best of luck;
Mrs. Rhea, two more like Mandy & me!!; Cindy, a rich husband and the ability to be perfect; Deanna & Derek, the best of luck in life; all my other friends, lots of memories; Mom & Dad, lots and lots of love and a million
"Thanks."

I, Richard (Dano) Wilfong, leave Matt, the best luck in the Marines, "Being all he can be"; Jennifer Miller, another brother to pick on;
Jason, Ryan, & Matt, more cold days at Snowshoe; Ryan, money so he won't bum anymore; Stew, some gum and chocolate
donuts; Krissy K., some common sense and hope she uses it; Tad,
a bigger belt buckle;
Mom, an easier time with little brother after the hard time she had with me!

I, Kenny Williams,
leave Treve Painter, my long-time stepfather, all my possessions. Peace.

I, Nathan Workman, leave Katie K., lung cancer; Buzz, a trip down the river road;
Ryan, a poker face;
Pic, an engine; Bond, speed; Stew, chocolate doughnuts; Jennifer,
my apologies; Kristen, a 12-mile jog to Hillsboro; Cheryl, a ride home; Charlie Mc, a man; Evan B., an injury; Jamie, a lighter and some clothes; Travis, some musty cologne; my mother, some lovin'; to all I've missed, a short "Good-bye".

